

What is “IAGLCWDC”?

“IAGLCWDC” stands for The “International Association of Gay/Lesbian Country Western Dance Clubs”, which is the name of our organization. Though “Gay/Lesbian” is historically retained in our name, it represents the entire LGBTQAI+ dance community.

Our Association exists to promote country-western dance and related activities throughout the international LGBTQAI+ community. Through our hoedowns, we meet to exchange a variety of country western dance styles, moves, and interpretations of dances by member clubs. The IAGLCWDC provides a forum for the exchange of ideas between member clubs, while constantly supporting and encouraging the growth of country western dance. The IAGLCWDC exerts no control or governing over its member clubs.

The IAGLCWDC Board of Directors is made up of the executive officers and one delegate from each member club. The Board convenes once a year in various cities, hosted by the Association or a member club.

Why Should Your Club Join?

- Energy. The IAGLCWDC is a group that has many ideas, as well as the energy and drive to follow through on them.
- Opportunity. With these ideas, there is the opportunity to create a vehicle that promotes the art of dance; is supportive while not being divisive; and is ethically and objectively run.
- Sharing. IAGLCWDC meetings can be an arena for further sharing of ideas directly and indirectly related to country-western dancing.
- Involvement. Now is a great time to become involved with this exhilarating and committed group of dancers!
- Networking. Being part of a worldwide association means that by attending conferences you can learn what other clubs are doing, develop contacts, and make friends from around the world.

What are Hoedowns?

Hoedowns are the heart of entertainment, education, and exchange among participants. Almost every member club hosts its own local hoedown or dance event sometime during the year. In addition, member clubs may bid for the opportunity to host an IAGLCWDC Annual Convention and Hoedown. Each convention is a weekend of socializing, dancing, workshops, and entertainment. Members experience the energy, excitement, and commitment to the IAGLCWDC.

Host clubs go out of their way to make participants feel welcome, and individual participants can learn new dances to take home to their own clubs. Hoedowns are opportunities to make new friends, renew friendships, exchange ideas, and support the work of other clubs. The Annual Convention and Hoedown also affords the chance for various committees of the IAGLCWDC to meet and share information with the Board and general membership. Such committees include supporting and dealing with disk jockeys, instructors, the Internet, dance team and line dance choreography, costuming, dance competitions, and hosting hoedowns.
